Female identifying graduates are invited to attend Gowns for Grads and select a FREE gown to wear to their high-school 2020 graduation party.

All students must be pre-registered to attend. Please submit your name to Student Services no later than Fri. March 20th, 2020.

After the registration deadline each school will be assigned a 2-hour time slot.
10:00am - 12:00pm OR 12:30pm - 2:30pm. 3:00 pm timeslots may be available by request only.

Dress racks will be replenished daily to ensure a good selection throughout the event.

After the registration deadline you will be advised of the date and time that has been assigned to your school. Graduates will also receive an attendance voucher and a letter with instructions. Each student must bring this to the event. All participants must have their name on our master list to be admitted.

This is a female identifying only event. Volunteers will be on hand to assist the students however graduates may bring one female identifying friend or relative to help select their gown if they wish. Students will have to share changing rooms so please make sure to wear a tank top and shorts under your clothes on the day of the event if you wish.
